

Paid Engineering Internship Available with the Sonoma County Water Agency, in the Resource Planning Section!

Our Resource Planning Section provides long and short term planning for Sonoma County Water Agency water resources, more information about the Sonoma County Water Agency is available at <http://www.scwa.ca.gov/>

Our ideal candidate has a background in hydrology, civil, and/or environmental engineering.

Intern tasks may include:

- Analysis of large hydrologic datasets using Microsoft Excel, VBA, Matlab and/or similar programs
- Hydraulic, hydrologic, and reservoir operation modeling
- GIS data analysis and database management
- Fieldwork including groundwater level collection and streamflow measurements

Number of hours per week: 20-40

Compensation per hour:

- Undergraduate Level $13.61
- Graduate Level $16.54

Please email your resume and statement of interest to: WA Human Resources at wahuman.resources@scwa.ca.gov

